PLUNGED TO DEATH

Lawton, Okla., Dec. 5.—Weakened by age and made unsafe by recent floods a bridge of Cache creek on the Fort Sill reservation gave way this afternoon and eight artillerymen and their horses were sunk into the raging waters of the stream. Two are dead, one is seriously wounded and several others sustained injuries.

The dead:

Privates Bryant and Maxwell, battery C of the First field artillery.

Seriously injured:

Private Hicks, battery C.

Twenty mounted artillerymen responded to a call to fight a prairie fire on the military reservation at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Some of the party dashed across the bridge safely and others had not reached it when it gave way. Nearly the entire structure went down, its breaking timbers entangling men and horses in a mesh that brought the entire party face to face with death. One horse was seriously injured with two legs broken. It was killed later.

The soldiers and their big horses lumbered down from the post in a mad race for the flames that were threatening to invade practically the entire eastern half of the reservation and destroy property held by the Apache prisoners of war. Like a phalanx of warriors the leaders plunged upon the bridge, the elephant-like steeds shaking it to the very spikes.

Champ Clark Chosen Leader.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Representative Champ Clark of Missouri, was chosen minority leader of the house of representatives tonight at a caucus of the democratic members of that body.

Mr. Clark's election was unanimous. His name was suggested to the caucus by the retiring minority leader, Senator-elect John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi. Resolutions were adopted thanking Mr. Williams for his services to the party on the floor of the house.

If you would see a bunch of statesmen skedaddle, just call a meeting on the prohibition question.

If money were not the root of all evil it would probably be something else just as good.

NEARLY 2,000,000 DOLLARS

Is the Amount the Federal Government Will Require to Keep Its Indian Business Going During Fiscal Year 1909

(By H. Walter Schulz.)

The Ada News Special Staff Correspondence.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Secretary Cortelyou of the Treasury Department has included the following items in his Indian budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910 of interest to Oklahoma:

Dawes Commission, Muskogee $140,000
Support and maintenance of schools 300,000
Per capita payments to Seminoles 750,000
Per capita payments to Sac and Fox 1,000,000
Removal of restrictions 35,000
Removal of intruders 17,000
Supervision, minor allottees, district agents 90,000
Leasing mineral lands, Creek and Cherokees 30,000
Support and maintenance, Chilocco school 129,400
Indian timber lands, protection 100,000
Indian schools, sites, leases and construction 300,000
Allotment of lands in severalty 105,000

The above figures including routine expenditures, annuities and gratuities in fulfillment of treaty stipulations, together with other estimates will be laid before congress Monday. The last three items are general in their nature and should congress see fit to appropriate the money it will be expended wherever exigencies demand. Whatever money is voted for the preservation of Indian lands will be expended in co-operation with the forestry bureau and as there are nearly 500,000 acres of such timber land in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations it is not unlikely that a major portion of the money made available will go to east Oklahoma.

Of all the items contained in the long list perhaps none will receive greater welcome than the $300,000 estimate for a continuance of the Benedict system of schools in the Five Civilized Tribes. The action of the treasury department and Secretary Garfield's recommendation of this item paves the way for favorable action at the hands of congress this winter and if voted will mean the up-building of a splendid system of schools in East Oklahoma where economic conditions have handicapped local authorities in perfecting a school system of their own. It will be recalled that Superintendent Cameron, last year attempted to eliminate J. D. Benedict, a federal officer under whose jurisdiction these school moneys have been expended in the past and at the same time invited a federal appropriation which he thought should be expended through his office. Scant attention, was paid to Mr. Cameron and congress made known its displeasure by threatening to cut off the appropriation altogether if the state should attempt to dictate how this money should be spent. Both Chairman Sherman of the house committee on Indian affairs and Senator Curtis were determined to brook no interference on the part of Mr. Cameron and that the money was forthcoming was largely the work of these men together with the Oklahoma congressional delegation who were equally determined that so large an appropriation should not be lost to the state. Another squabble is not looked for this time.

Second in importance, perhaps is Secretary Garfield's plan of capitalizing the Sac and Fox and the Seminole Indians by which is meant the pro rata division of the monies of these Indians now on deposit at the treasury department. This action would be in conformity with treaty obligations and at the same time cause the government a great saving as these monies have been drawing 5 per cent interest for a great many years, although the immediate payment of these monies to the Indians in large sums is not yet contemplated. For the present the interior department would be content with opening individual accounts with the Indians in question. The fact that allotments in severalty have already been made to these Indians is advanced as an argument in favor of the plan. In other words the government would do with the monies the same as it has done with the land—allot it—and reserve actual payments until some future time or disburse it under certain rules and regulations as is the case with the sale of Indian lands at the present time.

The only other items exciting more than ordinary interest are those affecting the Dawes commission, the work of the fourteen district agents who have been looking after the interests of minor allottees for the past year, and the removal of restriction provision for which $30,000 is asked in connection with cleaning up titles and investigating into the status of reserved lands for the Creek, Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians for which patents have not been issued or conveyance made under the treaties, and have not been approved by the president of the United States. "It is important that the titles to these reserves should be settled at as early a date as possible," says Secretary Garfield in a letter to the chairman of the Indian affairs committee, "as many of the tracts are occupied by persons who are anxious to obtain good title and have valuable improvements upon them." The work of the district agent it is said has just begun and as it is an important work will likely be of long duration. This is also true in measure of the Dawes commission which Secretary Garfield says will be unable to complete its labors next year because of the litigation now in the courts.

DECISION ON DISPENSARY

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 5.—That the dispensary law has not been repealed, and that the proposition for its repeal was never legally submitted to the people, is the decision rendered by Judge A. H. Huston in the district court here this morning in the mandamus case brought against Dispensary Superintendent Robert E. Lozier by the Alexander Drug Company of Oklahoma City, to test the status of the law.

A mandatory writ directing Lozier to sell the alcohol as requested was issued. Enforcement Attorney Caldwell gave notice of appeal.

Judge Huston sustains both the contentions on which it was held that the submission was illegal: First, because under the constitution a law passed with an emergency provision could not be submitted to a referendum vote, and second, because the ballot title under which the proposition was submitted to the people contained no reference to the proposed repeal of the law, but referred only to the proposed amendment of the constitution by engrafting the whole dispensary system upon the constitution, and extending it to the towns of 1,000 or any others where a public necessity might be thought to exist.

Judge Huston therefore declares that the entire law is still in force, with the unconstitutional provision which sought to extend the system to the smaller towns. He disposes of the contention that the legislature might provide for the repeal of a law upon the happening of some future event or contingency by stating that such a contingency must be such that in the judgment of the legislators it affects the extinction of expediency the legislature must exercise its own judgment and not throw the responsibility upon any other set of men, not even on the entire people of the state.

While Attorney Caldwell today gave notice of appeal to the supreme court, it is believed that the appeal will be merely a matter of form, in order to get a final judgment from higher court of the state on the question, as Superintendent Lozier would of course really prefer to have the judgment of the district court affirmed.

BROOM CORN AT $60 PER TON.

The Yield in Western Oklahoma Has Been Unusually Prolific.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Dec. 5.—Sixty dollars per ton for broom corn is the prevailing price for good broom in the Western part of Oklahoma, where the yield has been unusually prolific this season. Every farmer who was fortunate enough to plant broom corn last spring, has realized handsomely off his crop. Much of the best broom was contracted for by dealers in the East at good prices. The acreage next season promises to be double that of last in Oklahoma.

Let every ambitious young man remember that the time has passed when good places can be held by men who half fill them.

President Roosevelt seems determined to leave office with the contempt of the great majority of the people of this republic, who have been disposed to view with leniency his erratic conduct at times, in consideration of the many commendable things he has done in an official and personal capacity. His latest screed against men and newspapers is undignified, and to an extent, unjust. If there is no basis for the newspaper criticisms they will fall with their own lack of facts, but the president's ferocity will tend to make some believe there is more than the government is willing to be let known relative to the purchase of France's interests in the Panama canal, and the subsequent management of that undertaking.

PRESS COMMENT.

It seems strange that a man who is independent in politics should always find fault with one political party and be blind to the misdeeds of another. This kind of politics will not go now a day. Real independence is good anywhere, but hypocrisy, no where. The demagogues and the hypocrite both stand in the same class, and neither have a right to condemn the other.—Sallisaw Star-Gazette.

AFFAIRS OF THE INDIANS

Washington, Dec. 6.—Mr. Leupp, commissioner of Indian affairs, in his report just made, says that the so-called restrictions act of last May removed the restrictions from the lands of about two-thirds of the allottees in the Five Civilized nations. They were removed from all lands, including homesteads, of allottees enrolled as intermarried whites, as freedmen and as mixed bloods, and from all lands, except homesteads, of mixed blood Indians having at least one-half, but less than three-quarters, Indian blood. He estimates that out of 101,228 allottees only 36,000 still have restricted lands.

Under the law authorizing the secretary of the interior to remove restrictions on proof of competency of the applicant, restrictions were removed in 162 cases, involving 22,958 acres.

The commissioner reports that during the year suits have been brought to nullify conveyances of 12,500 tracts of land on the ground that the Indians who conveyed them were defrauded.

Up to June 30, 1908, there had been 17,727 leases of allotted land, of which 17,428 were for oil and gas production, 228 for coal and asphalt and 71 for miscellaneous purposes. The number filed during the last fiscal year was 3,143. At the end of the year 9,732 leases were in effect and 6,930 had been approved.

After remarking that the development of the oil fields in Oklahoma has not gone forward so rapidly the last year as during the preceding year, the commissioner says the building of two pipe lines to tide-water, while it added somewhat to the demand for oil, did not result in material advantage to the field in general, "because their purchasers were almost entirely limited to operators who were closely affiliated with their organizations." He says the amount of oil now stored in the Creek and Cherokee nations greatly exceeds the 18,000,000 barrels estimated as being in storage there on June 30, 1907.

The educational work among the Five Civilized Tribes is summarized as follows:

"For the fiscal year 1907, 312 day schools were maintained from tribal funds, 486 from congressional appropriation and 197 from surplus court fees.

"For the fiscal year 1908, 357 day schools were maintained from tribal funds, 865 from congressional appropriations and 199 from surplus court fees, a total of 1,421 day schools—an increase of 426.

"The total enrollment of day and boarding schools for the fiscal year 1908 was 12,765 Indians, 54,853 whites and 11,566 negroes—a total of 79,174 pupils. The enrollment in the same classes of schools for the last year was 67,100, showing an increase of 12,074."

The financial statement shows that during the year the Indian agents collected for the five tribes $2,620,319, of which $608,509 was for the account of the Chickasaws and Choctaws, $124,837 for the account of the Cherokees, $75,728 for the account of the Creeks and $2,536 for account of the Seminoles. The balance was in individual moneys, including royalties amounting last year to $1,692,627. The disbursements on behalf of the Indians amounted to $2,367,524.

William Macauley Coming.

Probably one of the most talked of attractions that visits Ada this season is William Macauley in the beautiful drama, "When We Were Friends." Mr. Macauley is becoming more firmly entrenched each season in the affections of theater-goers, and in the character of "Wallace Desmond" his poise, reserve and effectiveness of delivery are a delight. The engagement here on Tuesday, Dec. 8, will be looked forward to with interest.

THEATRE TALK NO. 2

It pays to wait after all, for the good comes in time, even in the drama, bringing a splendid recompense for some of the "cheats" you have had.

"Monte Cristo" which comes to town pretty soon is a play that can be seen again and again by those who have souls to feel the spell of real romantic drama. IT RANKS AS ONE OF THE GREATEST DRAMATIC TRIUMPHS OF THEATRICAL HISTORY, both artistically and financially. It has had phenomenal success throughout the entire world and will live in the annals of the stage as one of the highest examples of dramatic literature. HOWEVER MERITORIOUS A PLAY WITHOUT AN INTELLIGENT CAST, an artistic and effective production is impossible. No pains or expense has been spared to get the best. Young, bright, intelligent, resourceful actors have been selected in each instance, with express reference to adaptability to the parts assigned them.

GORGEOUS SCENIC REVIVAL OF THE POWERFUL MELO-DRAMA MONTE CRISTO.

THREE!

The American people are broad gauged and liberal minded. They are ready to hear any remarks, listen to any song, read any book, see any play, try anything new, and they pass their verdict promptly and infallibly. ANYTHING THAT BECOMES POPULAR IS GOOD, AND NOTHING CAN BECOME POPULAR THAT IS NOT GOOD. The people never make a mistake. Newspaper advertising will induce the readers to try anything that's advertised—once. MERIT DOES THE REST. A shining example of this principle is that of the romantic play, "Monte Cristo" which will be presented in this city soon. This play has been produced season after season for seventy years. IT MUST BE MERITORIOUS DON'T YOU THINK? USUAL PRICES WILL PREVAIL.

A Delightful Recital.

Saturday evening, at the court house, from 8 to 10:30, a musical and recitation program was rendered by Isadore Rosenfield, pianist; Mrs. Jackson, soprano, and Miss McGee, reader.

A large crowd attended and they were most highly entertained. The piano selections were exquisitely rendered by Isadore Rosenfield, who has exceptional musical talent, which is being rapidly developed under the instruction of Mrs. Shanafelt. The singing by Mrs. Jackson of Lehigh, was very fine, indeed, and proved her possessed of a sweet and highly cultivated voice. Miss McGee's readings were highly enjoyed and showed her an adept in elocution.

20TH. WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Saturday evening last, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Steiner, of Ada, celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary. Numerous friends were present to greet them and extend wishes for many more such happy returns.

The ball, parlor and dining room were beautifully decorated, with mistletoe predominating.

As the guests arrived, they were served by Mildred Steiner in the hall with delicious fruit punch, and then ushered into the parlor to meet Mr. and Mrs. Freelove, of Kansas, parents of Mrs. Steiner.

There was some excellent music on the piano, conversation and a general pleasant mingling of friends. The dining room table was loaded with beautiful chinaware, representing presents from relatives and friends.

Ice cream in the shape of hearts and angel food cake were served in the dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Steiner received many congratulations on their youthful and handsome appearance for a couple who had been married twentyyears, and time has certainly dealt kindly with them.

The News joins their legion of friends in wishing they may celebrate their diamond wedding and the presents be as many as were bestowed at their china anniversary.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SCORES AND IS SCORED

New York, Dec. 6.—Following the announcement in press dispatches last night that a letter had been made public signed by the president and addressed to William S. Foulke of Richmond, Ind., in which Mr. Roosevelt referred in scathing terms to Editor Laffan of the New York Sun, the New Yorker issued a statement for publication, presenting his compliments to the president, but declining to enter any controversy, because, as he stated, the Sun editor "is fully alive to the extremity of the inconvenience which attaches to a personal controversy with a man who has shown himself capable of suppression and perversion of individual correspondence, an act which, in ordinary life, would, in the cognizance of any club or association of self-respecting gentlemen, entail his prompt expulsion."

Dated Hot Springs, Va., the dispatch carrying the correspondence between Mr. Foulke and the president stated that the letters had been made public by Mr. Foulke, and, in the letter signed by President Roosevelt, the nation's chief executive roundly scored the Indianapolis News, as well as the New York Sun. His rebuke of the Indianapolis newspaper was for publication of quoted editorials referring to a "Panama purchase scandal," a thing, according to the president, which has not, and does not, exist. The reproach of the New York Sun was because that newspaper had chided the president in connection with the Prairie Oil and Gas Company's rights granted in franchise in what is now the State of Oklahoma, a matter which was in controversy between President Roosevelt and Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma during the recent presidential campaign.

Pine Bluff Still in Danger.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Dec. 6.—A continued rainfall, which started last night, and the consequent softening of the already crumbling river banks has renewed apprehension here, and it is not improbable, should the rain continue, that considerable additional property loss may yet occur, notwithstanding the rapid recession of the Arkansas river, which began early today, and at nightfall had fallen a foot.

While the eastern section of the city, the residence section, seems now to be most endangered, the banks which protect the wholesale district and county court house, considered yesterday to be safe, were impaired to such an extent today that they may yet give away, causing the destruction of much valuable property.

TWO KILLED IN WRECK.

Frost on Rails Prevent Airbrake Working.

Amarillo, Tex., Dec. 6.—Because frosty rails caused the wheels to slide when airbrakes were applied to a fast southbound Santa Fe passenger train upon passing the switch at Haney, a siding eleven miles south of this city, a collision occurred with the northbound train at the meeting point, in which two were killed, two seriously hurt and a number of others more or less seriously bruised and cut. The track was clear within an hour after the wrecker had arrived.

Depew's First Kiss.

The crusade against kissing, which is in full progress just now, has inspired Senator Depew, who is always eloquent, no matter what the subject he discusses, to tell the story of his first kiss. "Worlds couldn't buy the memory of my first kiss, there on the river at Peekskill, in the moon light," he says. "I remember it yet with an exquisite thrill. I can feel the brush of her curls against my cheek, feel the thrill of her touch, see the blush and her roguish eyes before me now. Pity, pity the poor creature who has never enjoyed an experience like that. When I was a boy in my teens I was a great oarsman, and I was often on the Hudson in my boat. This night my little bright-eyed sweetheart was with me. The moon was shining. I remember how I pulled out into the stream, her roguish eyes upon me. A king on his throne was never happier and he never had half the right to be. We talked; after a while we let the boat drift. I rather think, maybe her eyes drew me nearer to her; maybe her loose curls brushed my cheek; maybe we were saying tender nothings; maybe I touched her hand. Then suddenly it happened. It is the touch that does it—the electric thrill. A young fellow could no more help it than he could stop a storm, and the girl couldn't either. It's the way of a man and a maid." —Washington Herald.

Demand Creates Supply.

People who want to improve the theatre should go to the theatre. The demand creates the supply, but no amount of supply will create a demand. There will be good plays and bad plays according to audiences attending. The play should teach the ethics of life to example. It appeals to our better instincts and husbands our endangered ideals. The cry today is that the play is not what it should be. Just how great it shall be rests primarily with the public, that can come or stay away. If it allows the stage to be ruled by the vulgar and the licentious, it will get that kind of plays. There's no need to say much about "Monte Cristo," which comes to the Ada Opera House Wednesday, Dec. 16.

When it comes to jumping to conclusions, some sensational people can beat a bullfrog.

DINWIDDIE IS SATISFIED.

Says "Two By Four Lawyers" Will Never Be Able to Shake the Billups Bill.

Washington, Dec. 5.—"They may kick all they want to, but I am not in the least alarmed about the 2x4 lawyers representing the liquor interests finding that the Billups enforcement law of Oklahoma is unconstitutional," said C. E. Dinwiddie, who is back on the job at Washington with the National Anti-Saloon league people, despite the stories that he had been fired because of alleged misuse of funds handled by him while actively engaged in conducting the prohibition fight in Oklahoma.

Mr. Dinwiddie has systematically taken up the work of finding out every newspaper in Oklahoma that printed the story to the effect that he had gone to Europe on a pleasure trip and that the campaign fund was $6,000 short, and that Dinwiddie would be fired by the anti-saloon people, and he is sending them copies of a report made by the Oklahoma board which completely exonerated him. This report he is demanding that they publish, and when they refuse he says he is going to take further action. He already has a suit filed against the Guthrie State Capital for a story it printed alleging that Dinwiddie had spent $20,000 collected for the prohibition campaign in assisting in the election of Haskell.

He says that the prohibition people are satisfied with the way the prohibition law is being enforced in Oklahoma, and when told of the wholesale bootlegging going on in the larger towns replied that no sane man could expect a complete change in a night, but that he had information that in a majority of the counties outside the large towns the law is being enforced. He also intimated that the prohibition people had information that led them to expect that the lid would blow off soon in a number of counties where it seems evident the county authorities are not exerting their best efforts to suppress bootlegging.

One Killed and Two Injured.

Lawton, Ok., Dec. 6.—One killed and two injured was the result of the accidental discharge of a shotgun at Rendlett yesterday.

Lonning Griffin was planning to go hunting and had gone to the home of Mrs. A. Moore with whom he resided, secured his gun and passing it to his brother it was fired, killing Bennie Moore, an 8-year-old child, and wounding Mrs. Moore and another of her children.

fire on the military reservation at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Some of the party dashed across the bridge safely and others had not reached it when it gave way. Nearly the entire structure went down, its breaking timbers entangling men and horses in a mesh that brought the entire party face to face with death. One horse was seriously injured with two legs broken. It was killed later.

The soldiers and their big horses lumbered down from the post in a mad race for the flames that were threatening to invade practically the entire eastern half of the reservation and destroy property held by the Apache prisoners of war. Like a phalanx of warriors the leaders plunged upon the bridge, the elephant-like steeds shaking it to the very spikes.

Chap Clark Chosen Leader.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Representative Chap Clark of Missouri, was chosen minority leader of the house of representatives tonight at a caucus of the democratic members of that body.

Mr. Clark's election was unanimous. His name was suggested to the caucus by the retiring minority leader, Senator-elect John Sharp Williams of Mississippi. Resolutions were adopted thanking Mr. Williams for his services to the party on the floor of the house.

NEARLY 2,000,000 DOLLARS

Is the Amount the Federal Government Will Require to Keep Its Indian Business Going During Fiscal Year 1909

(By H. Walter Schulz)

The Ada News Special Staff Correspondence.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Secretary Cortelyou of the Treasury Department has included the following items in his Indian budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910 of interest to Oklahoma.

Dawes Commission, Muskogee	$140,000
Support and maintenance of schools	300,000
Per capita payments to Seminoles	750,000
Per capita payments to Sac and Fox	1,000,000
Removal of restrictions	35,000
Removal of intruders	17,000
Supervision, minor allottees, district agents	90,000
Leasing mineral lands, Creek and Cherokees	30,000
Support and maintenance, Chillicothe school	129,400
Indian timber lands, protection	100,000
Indian schools, sites, leases and construction	300,000
Allotment of lands in severalty	105,000

The above figures including routine expenditures, annuities and gratuities in fulfillment of treaty stipulations, together with other estimates will be laid before congress Monday. The last three items are general in their nature and should congress see fit to appropriate the money it will be expended wherever exigencies demand. Whatever money is voted for the preservation of Indian lands will be expended in co-operation with the forestry bureau and as there are nearly 500,000 acres of such timber land in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations it is not unlikely that a major portion of the money made available will go to east Oklahoma.

Of all the items contained in the long list perhaps none will receive greater welcome than the $300,000 estimate for a continuance of the Bénédict system of schools in the Five Civilized Tribes. The action of the treasury department and Secretary Garfield's recommendation of this item paves the way for favorable action at the hands of congress this winter and if voted will mean the up-building of a splendid system of schools in East Oklahoma where economic conditions have handicapped local authorities in perfecting a school system of their own. It will be recalled that Superintendent Cameron, last year attempted to eliminate J. D. Benedict, a federal officer under whose jurisdiction these school moneys have been expended in the past and at the same time invited a federal appropriation which he thought should be expended through his office. Scant attention was paid to Mr. Cameron and congress made known its displeasure by threatening to cut off the appropriation altogether if the state should attempt to dictate how this money should be spent. Both Chairman Sherman of the house committee on Indian affairs and Senator Curtis were determined to brook no interference on the part of Mr. Cameron and that the money was forthcoming was largely the work of these men together with the Oklahoma congressional delegation who were equally determined that so large an appropriation should not be lost to the state. Another squabble is not looked for this time.

Second in importance, perhaps is Secretary Garfield's plan of capitalizing the Sac and Fox and the Seminole Indians by which is meant the pro rata division of the monies of these Indians now on deposit at the treasury department. This action would be in conformity with treaty obligations and at the same time cause the government a great saving as these monies have been drawing 5 per cent interest for a great many years, although the immediate payment of these monies to the Indians in large sums is not yet contemplated. For the present the treasury department would be content with opening individual accounts with the Indians in question. The fact that allotments in severalty have already been made to these Indians is advanced as an argument in favor of the plan. In other words the government would do with the monies the same as it has done with the land—allot it—and reserve actual payments until some future time or disburse it under certain rules and regulations as is the case with the sale of Indian lands at the present time.

The only other items exciting more than ordinary interest are those affecting the Dawes commission, the work of the fourteen district agents who have been looking after the interests of minor allottees for the past year, and the removal of restriction provision for which $30,000 is asked in connection with cleaning up titles and investigating into the status of reserved lands for the Creek, Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians for which patents have not been issued or conveyance made under the treaties, and have not been approved by the president of the United States. It is important that the titles to these reserves should be settled at as early a date as possible," says Secretary Garfield in a letter to the chairman of the Indian affairs committee, "as many of the tracts are occupied by persons who are anxious to obtain good title and have valuable improvements upon them." The work of the district agent it is said has just begun and as it is an important work will likely be of long duration. This is also true in measure of the Dawes commission which Secretary Garfield says will be unable to complete its labors next year because of the litigation now in the courts.

DECISION ON DISPENSARY

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 5.—That the dispensary law has not been repealed, and that the proposition for its repeal was never legally submitted to the people, is the decision rendered by Judge A. H. Huston in the district court here this morning in the mandamus case brought against Dispensary Superintendent Robert E. Lozier by the Alexander Drug Company of Oklahoma City, to test the status of the law.

A mandatory writ directing Lozier to sell the alcohol as requested was issued. Enforcement Attorney Caldwell gave notice of appeal.

Judge Huston sustains both the contentions on which it was held that the submission was illegal. First, because under the constitution a law passed with an emergency provision could not be submitted to a referendum vote, and second, because the ballot title under which the proposition was submitted to the people contained no reference to the proposed repeal of the law, but referred only to the proposed amendment of the constitution by engrafting the whole dispensary system upon the constitution, and extending it to the towns of 1,000 or any others where a public necessity might be thought to exist.

Judge Huston therefore declares that the entire law is still in force, with the unconstitutional provision which sought to extend the system to the smaller towns. He disposes of the contention that the legislature might provide for the repeal of a law upon the happening of some future event or contingency by statute.

ing that such a contingency must be such that in the judgment of the legislators it affects the extension of expediency the legislature must exercise its own judgment and not throw the responsibility upon any other set of men, not even on the entire people of the state.

While Attorney Caldwell today gave notice of appeal to the supreme court, it is believed that the appeal will be merely a matter of form, in order to get a final judgment from higher court of the state on the question as Superintendent Lozier would of course really prefer to have the judgment of the district court affirmed.

BROOM CORN AT $60 PER TON.

The Yield in Western Oklahoma Has Been Unusually Prolific.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Dec. 5.—Sixty dollars per ton for broom corn is the prevailing price for good brush in the Western part of Oklahoma, where the yield has been unusually prolific this season. Every farmer who was fortunate enough to plant broom corn last spring, has realized handsomely off his crop. Much of the best brush was contracted for by dealers in the East at good prices. The average next season promises to be double that of last in Oklahoma.

Let every ambitious young man remember that the time has passed when good places can be held by men who half fill them.

Your trade will be greatly improved during the holidays if you use the columns of the News to tell the people what you have for sale.

Remember the many public improvements to be made in Ada within the next twelve months, and that this expenditure will greatly help all lines of business. Therefore, you need not be so parsimonious during the holidays, but can be charitable to the needy as well as loyal to your own kith and kin.

Our advice to you as a friend is not to buy Christmas goods of a store that doesn't advertise. You'll probably get goods that have been carried over for several seasons if you do. The merchant who is enterprising and lets the world know he's alive, moves his stock every year and has the freshest, best and newest in his stock. A word to the wise ought to be sufficient.—Ardmoreite.

This rule will apply to other times than Christmas. If you want new, fresh goods, at reasonable prices, at any time, go to the regular advertiser.

President Roosevelt seems determined to leave office with the contempt of the great majority of the people of this republic, who have been disposed to view with leniency his erratic conduct at times, in consideration of the many commendable things he has done in an official and personal capacity. His latest screed against men and newspapers is undignified, and to an extent, unjust. If there is no basis for the newspaper criticisms they will cut with their own lack of facts, but the president's ferocity will tend to make some believe there is more than the government is willing to be let known relative to the purchase of France's interests in the Panama canal, and the subsequent management of that undertaking.

PRESS COMMENT.

It seems strange that a man who is independent in politics should always find fault with one political party and be blind to the misdeeds of another. This kind of politics will not go now a day. Real independence is good anywhere, but hypocrisy, no where. The demagogues and the hypocrite both stand in the same class, and neither have a right to condemn the other.—Salisbury Star-Gazette.

Mr. Archbold was unable to explain an item of 22 million dollars paid to P. S. Trainer, beyond the mere fact that it was for "adjustments." Perhaps Mr. Trainer did some plumbing for the Standard Oil Company.—Kansas City Star.

This year's experience demonstrates that the only way to build good roads in this country is to start out with good foundations. It is better to build a few miles of good road each year than to expend all energy and money in piecing and patching after each rain.—Holdenville Times.

The combination between Eastern and Western butter makers is said to be responsible for the high price of butter. According to the report there is plenty of it in storage but it is being fed out so as not to affect prices.—Denison Herald.

AFFAIRS OF THE INDIANS

Washington, Dec. 6.—Mr. Leupp, commissioner of Indian affairs, in his report just made, says that the so-called restrictions act of last May removed the restrictions from the lands of about two-thirds of the allottees in the Five Civilized nations. They were removed from all lands, including homesteads, of allottees enrolled as intermarried whites, as freedmen and as mixed bloods, and from all lands, except homesteads, of mixed blood Indians having at least one-half, but less than three-quarters, Indian blood. He estimates that out of 181,228 allottees only 36,960 still have restricted lands.

Under the law authorizing the secretary of the interior to remove restrictions on proof of competency of the applicant, restrictions were removed in 162 cases, involving 22,958 acres.

The commissioner reports that during the year suits have been brought to nullify conveyances of 12,500 tracts of land on the ground that the Indians who conveyed them were defrauded.

Up to June 30, 1908, there had been 17,727 leases of allotted land, of which 17,428 were for oil and gas production, 228 for coal and asphalt and 71 for miscellaneous purposes. The number filed during the last fiscal year was 3,113. At the end of the year 9,732 leases were in effect and 9,339 had been approved.

After remarking that the development of the oil fields in Oklahoma has not gone forward so rapidly the last year as during the preceding year, the commissioner says the building of two pipe lines to tide-water, while it added somewhat to the demand for oil, did not result in material advantage to the field in general, "because their purchasers were almost entirely limited to operators who were closely affiliated with their organizations." He says the amount of oil now stored in the Creek and Cherokee nations greatly exceeds the 18,000,000 barrels estimated as being in storage there on June 30, 1907.

The educational work among the Five Civilized Tribes is summarized as follows:

"For the fiscal year 1907, 312 day schools were maintained from tribal funds, 486 from congressional appropriation and 187 from surplus court fees.

"For the fiscal year 1908, 357 day schools were maintained from tribal funds, $65 from congressional appropriations and 189 from surplus court fees, a total of 1,412 day schools—an increase of 126.

"The total enrollment of day and boarding schools for the fiscal year 1908 was 12,765 Indians, 51,853 whites and 11,568 negroes—a total of 76,174 pupils. The enrollment in the same classes of schools for the last year was 67,100, showing an increase of 12,074."

The financial statement shows that during the year the Indian agents collected for the five tribes $2,620,319, of which $908,569 was for the account of the Chickasaws and Choctaws, $121,837 for the account of the Cherokees, $70,728 for the account of the Creeks and $2,336 for account of the Seminoles. The balance was in individual monies, including royalties amounting last year to $1,092,627. The disbursements on behalf of the Indians amounted to $2,367,524.

William Macauley Coming.

Probably one of the most talked of attractions that visits Ada this season is William Macauley in the beautiful drama, "When We Were Friends." Mr. Macauley is becoming more firmly entrenched each season in the affections of theatergoers, and in the character of "Wallace Desmond" his poise, reserve and effectiveness of delivery are a delight. The engagement here on Tuesday, Dec. 8, will be looked forward to with interest.

THEATRE TALK NO. 2

It pays to wait after all, for the good comes in time, even in the drama, bringing a splendid recompense for some of the "cheats" you have had.

"Monte Cristo" which comes to town pretty soon is a play that can be seen again and again by those who have souls to feel the spell of real romantic drama. IT RANKS AS ONE OF THE GREATEST DRAMATIC TRIUMPHS OF THEATRICAL HISTORY, both artistically and financially. It has had phenomenal success throughout the entire world and will live in the annals of the stage as one of the highest examples of dramatic literature. HOWEVER MERITORIOUS A PLAY WITHOUT AN INTELLIGENT CAST, an artistic and effective production is impossible. No pains or expense has been spared to get the best. Young, bright, intelligent, resourceful actors have been selected in each instance, with express reference to adaptability to the parts assigned them.

The American people are broad gauged and liberal minded. They are ready to hear any remarks, listen to any song, read any book, see any play, try anything new, and they pass their verdict promptly and infallibly. ANYTHING THAT BECOMES POPULAR IS GOOD, AND NOTHING CAN BECOME POPULAR THAT IS NOT GOOD. The people never make a mistake. Newspaper advertising will induce the readers to try anything that's advertised—once. MERIT DOES THE REST. A shining example of this principle is that of the romantic play, "Monte Cristo" which will be presented in this city soon. This play has been produced season after season for seventy years. IT MUST BE MERITORIOUS DON'T YOU THINK? USUAL PRICES WILL PREVAIL.

20TH. WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Saturday evening last, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Steiner, of Ada, celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary. Numerous friends were present to greet them and extend wishes for many more such happy returns.

The hall, parlor and dining room were beautifully decorated, with mistletoe predominating.

As the guests arrived, they were served by Mildred Steiner in the hall with delicious fruit punch, and then ushered into the parlor to meet Mr. and Mrs. Froelove, of Kansas, parents of Mrs. Steiner.

There was some excellent music on the piano, conversation and a general pleasant mingling of friends. The dining room table was loaded with beautiful china, representing presents from relatives and friends.

Ice cream in the shape of hearts and angel food cake were served in the dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Steiner received many congratulations on their youthful and handsome appearance for a couple who had been married twenty years, and time has certainly dealt kindly with them.

The News joins their legion of friends in wishing they may celebrate their diamond wedding and the presents be as many as were bestowed at their china anniversary.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SCORES AND IS SCORED

New York, Dec. 6.—Following the announcement in press dispatches last night that a letter had been made public signed by the president and addressed to William S. Foulke of Richmond, Ind., in which Mr. Roosevelt referred in scathing terms to Editor Laffan of the New York Sun, the New Yorker issued a statement for publication, presenting his compliments to the president, but declining to enter any controversy, because, as he stated, the Sun editor "is fully alive to the extremity of the inconvenience which attaches to a personal controversy with a man who has shown himself capable of suppression and perversion of individual correspondence, an act which, in ordinary life, would, in the cognizance of any club or association of self-respecting gentlemen, entail his prompt expulsion."

Dated Hot Springs, Va., the dispatch carrying the correspondence between Mr. Foulke and the president stated that the letters had been made public by Mr. Foulke, and, in the letter signed by President Roosevelt, the nation's chief executive roundly scored the Indianapolis News, as well as the New York Sun. TWO KILLED IN WRECK.

Frost on Rails Prevent Airbrake Working.

Amarillo, Tex., Dec. 6.—Because frosty rails caused the wheels to slide when airbrakes were applied to a fast southbound Santa Fe passenger train upon passing the switch at Haney, a siding eleven miles south of this city, a collision occurred with the northbound train at the meeting point, in which two were killed, two seriously hurt and a number of others more or less seriously bruised and cut. The track was clear within an hour after the wrecker had arrived.

Depew's First Kiss.

The crusade against kissing, which is in full progress just now, has inspired Senator Depew, who is always eloquent, no matter what the subject he discusses, to tell the story of his first kiss. "Worlds couldn't buy the memory of my first kiss, there on the river at Peckskill, in the moon light," he says. "I remember it yet with an exquisite thrill. I can feel the brush of her curls against my cheek, feel the thrill of her touch, see the blush and her roguish eyes before me now. Pity, pity the poor creature who has never enjoyed an experience like that. When I was a boy in my teens I was a great darsman, and I was often on the Hudson in my boat. This night my little bright-eyed sweetheart was with me. The moon was shining. I remember how I pulled out into the stream, her roguish eyes upon me. A king on his throne was never happier and he never had half the right to be. We talked; after a while we let the boat drift. I rather think, maybe her eyes drew me nearer to her; maybe her loose curls brushed my cheek, maybe we were saying tender nothings, maybe I touched her hand. Then suddenly it happened. It is the touch that does it—the electric thrill. A young fellow could no more help it than he could stop a storm, and the girl couldn't either. It's the way of a man and a maid." —Washington Herald.

Demand Creates Supply.

People who want to improve the theatre should go to the theatre. The demand creates the supply, but no amount of supply will create a demand. There will be good plays and bad plays according to audiences attending. The play should teach the ethics of life to example. It appeals to our better instincts and husbands our endangered ideals. The cry today is that the play is not what it should be. Just how great it shall be rests primarily with the public, that can come or stay away. If it allows the stage to be ruled by the vulgar and the licentious, it will get that kind of plays. There's no need to say much about "Monte Cristo," which comes to the Ada Opera House Wednesday, Dec. 16.

When it comes to jumping to conclusions, some sensational people can beat a bullfrog.

DINWIDDIE IS SATISFIED.

Says "Two By Four Lawyers" Will Never Be Able to Shake the Billings Bill.

Washington, Dec. 5.—"They may kick all they want to, but I am not in the least alarmed about the 2x4 lawyers representing the liquor interests finding that the Billings enforcement law of Oklahoma is unconstitutional," said C. E. Dinwiddie, who is back on the job at Washington with the National Anti-Saloon league people, despite the stories that he had been fired because of alleged misuse of funds handled by him while actively engaged in conducting the prohibition fight in Oklahoma.

Mr. Dinwiddie has systematically taken up the work of finding out every newspaper in Oklahoma that printed the story to the effect that he had gone to Europe on a pleasure trip and that the campaign fund was $6,000 short, and that Dinwiddie would be fired by the anti-saloon people, and he is sending them copies of a report made by the Oklahoma board which completely exonerated him. This report he is demanding that they publish, and when they refuse he says he is going to take further action. He already has a suit filed against the Guthrie State Capital for a story it printed alleging that Dinwiddie had spent $20,000 collected for the prohibition campaign in assisting in the election of Haskell.

He says that the prohibition people are satisfied with the way the prohibition law is being enforced in Oklahoma, and when told of the wholesale bootlegging going on in the larger towns replied that no sane man could expect a complete change in a night, but that he had information that in a majority of the counties outside the large towns the law is being enforced. He also indicated that the prohibition people had information that led them to expect that the lid would blow off soon in a number of counties where it seems evident the county authorities are not exerting their best efforts to suppress bootlegging.

One Killed and Two Injured.

Lawton, Ok., Dec. 6.—One killed and two injured was the result of the accidental discharge of a shotgun at Rendlett yesterday. Lonning Griffin was planning to go hunting and had gone to the home of Mrs. A. Moore with whom he resided, secured his gun and passing it to his brother it was fired, killing Bennie Moore, an 8-year-old child, and wounding Mrs. Moore and another of her children.

Saturday evening, at the court house, from 8 to 10:30, a musical and recitation program was rendered by Isadore Rosenfield, pianist; Mrs. Jackson, soprano, and Miss McGee, reader.

A large crowd attended and they were most highly entertained. The piano selections were exquisitely rendered by Isadore Rosenfield, who has exceptional musical talent, which is being rapidly developed under the instruction of Mrs. Shanafelt.

The singing by Mrs. Jackson of Lehigh, was very fine, indeed, and proved her possession of a sweet and highly cultivated voice.

Miss McGee's readings were highly enjoyed and showed her an adept in elocution.

20TH. WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Saturday evening last, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Steiner, of Ada, celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary. Numerous friends were present to greet them and extend wishes for many more such happy returns.

The ball, parlor and dining room were beautifully decorated, with mistletoe predominating.

As the guests arrived, they were served by Mildred Steiner in the hall with delicious fruit punch, and then ushered into the parlor to meet Mr. and Mrs. Freeborn, of Kansas, parents of Mrs. Steiner.

There was some excellent music on the piano, conversation and a general pleasant mingling of friends. The dining room table was loaded with beautiful china-ware, representing presents from relatives and friends.

Ice cream in the shape of hearts and angel food cake were served in the dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Steiner received many congratulations on their youthful and handsome appearance for a couple who had been married twenty years, and time has certainly dealt kindly with them.

The News joins their legion of friends in wishing they may celebrate their diamond wedding and the presents be as many as were bestowed at their china anniversary.

I can feel the brush of her curls against my cheek, feel the thrill of her touch, see the blush and her roguish eyes before me now. Pity, pity the poor creature who has never enjoyed an experience like that. When I was a boy in my teens I was a great darsman, and I was often on the Hudson in my boat. This night my little bright-eyed sweetheart was with me. The moon was shining. I remember how I pulled out into the stream, her roguish eyes upon me. A king on his throne was never happier and he never had half the right to be. We talked; after a while, we let the boat drift. I rather think, maybe her eyes drew me nearer to her; maybe her loose curls brushed my cheek, maybe we were saying tender nothings, maybe I touched her hand. Then suddenly it happened. It is the touch that does it—the electric thrill. A young fellow could no more help it than he could stop a storm, and the girl couldn't either. It's the way of a man and a maid."

Demand Creates Supply.

People who want to improve the theatre should go to the theatre. The demand creates the supply, but no amount of supply will create a demand. There will be good plays and bad plays according to audiences attending. The play should teach the ethics of life to example. It appeals to our better instincts and husbands our endangered ideals. The cry today is that the play is not what it should be. Just how great it shall be rests primarily with the public, that can come or stay away. If it allows the stage to be ruled by the vulgar and the licentious, it will get that kind of plays. There's no need to say much about "Monte Cristo," which comes to the Ada Opera House Wednesday, Dec. 16.

When it comes to jumping to conclusions, some sensational people can beat a bullfrog.

Says "Two By Four Lawyers" Will Never Be Able to Shake the Billings Bill.

Washington, Dec. 5.—"They may kick all they want to, but I am not in the least alarmed about the 2x4 lawyers representing the liquor interests finding that the Billings enforcement law of Oklahoma is unconstitutional," said C. E. Dinwiddie, who is back on the job at Washington with the National Anti-Saloon League people, despite the stories that he had been fired because of alleged misuse of funds handled by him while actively engaged in conducting the prohibition fight in Oklahoma.

Mr. Dinwiddie has systematically taken up the work of finding out every newspaper in Oklahoma that printed the story to the effect that he had gone to Europe on a pleasure trip and that the campaign fund was $6,000 short, and that Dinwiddie would be fired by the anti-saloon people, and he is sending them copies of a report made by the Oklahoma board which completely exonerated him. This report he is demanding that they publish, and when they refuse he says he is going to take further action. He already has a suit filed against the Guthrie State Capital for a story it printed alleging that Dinwiddie had spent $20,000 collected for the prohibition campaign in assisting in the election of Haskell.

He says that the prohibition people are satisfied with the way the prohibition law is being enforced in Oklahoma, and when told of the wholesale bootlegging going on in the larger towns replied that no sane man could expect a complete change in a night, but that he had information that in a majority of the counties outside the large towns the law is being enforced. He also intimated that the prohibition people had information that led them to expect that the lid would blow off soon in a number of counties where it seems evident the county authorities are not exerting their best efforts to suppress bootlegging.

One Killed and Two Injured.

Lawton, Ok., Dec. 4.—One killed and two injured was the result of the accidental discharge of a shotgun at Readlett yesterday.

Lonning Griffin was planning to go hunting and had gone to the home of Mrs. A. Moore with whom he resided, secured his gun and passing it to his brother it was fired, killing Bennie Moore, an 8-year-old child, and wounding Mrs. Moore and another of her children.

What a school boy hates about Saturday and Sunday is that they are not Monday and Tuesday.
